This one week sleep away experience will enhance your child’s summer by wow-ing them with sports, arts, ropes, aquatics, sciences, and just plain fun! Our partnership with the NJY Camps in Milford, PA provides a perfect environment for a first-time sleep away camp experience.

Parents will bring their children to and from the Fort Lauderdale airport, where they will be greeted by staff chaperones from Camp Beth Emet. Campers will stay in modern accommodations with private bathrooms, which include hot and cold running water and showers as well. A Camp Beth Emet Staff member will be staying in each cabin.

Children are encouraged to learn, explore and play in an atmosphere that awakens their curiosity, builds self-esteem, strengthens Jewish values, nurtures their talents and creates lasting memories and enduring friendships.

The camps are located in the foothills of the Pocono Mountains 75 miles from New York City, and 90 minutes from Newark airport. Other Florida area JCCs and Camps will be attending this same week.
