

Temple Beth Emet Chavurot

What is a Chavurah?

A Chavurah (plural Chavurot) is a small group of families, couples or individuals, (usually about 10-20 adults) who share common interests and desire to meet together on a regular basis to develop a personal community within the TBE Congregation.

Topics of Interest

- Art
- Sports: Golf, Basketball, Football, Bowling, Biking, other
- Bikers
- Adventure / Travel
- Food / Dining
- Theater / Cinema
- Music
- Photography
- Politics
- Business network
- Holiday Celebrations
- Other

Save the date!
FREE Kickoff Event
November 4th @ 8pm
Cocktails and Desserts

When, where and what does it cost?

Generally, each Chavurah meets once a month. The activity/event, place, day, and time of the meeting is determined by the group.

There is no Chavurah membership fee.

If you are interested in joining a Chavurah, or starting a new Chavurah, please fill out the attached application and return to the Temple office by October 21, 2011.

For more information call the Temple office at 954-680-1882.

Chavurah Application

Please fill out this Application Form and return to the Temple Office by October 21, 2011

Contact Information

| | |
|--------------------------|--|
| Name and Age | |
| Spouses Name and Age | |
| Address | |
| Best Number to reach you | |
| E-Mail Address | |
| # of children and ages | |

Temple/Personal Interests - Check all that Apply

- Looking for Extended Family Multi denominational Family Single Parent Family
- Celebrate Holidays Community Service Empty Nester
- Social Emphasis Young Family Activities Teen Family Activities
- Attend Services Jewish Identity and Study Other please list below

Interests

Tell us about your interests and hobbies

List a friend or family you would like to have in your Chavurah:

Tell us something to help us find you the right Chavurah.

- Please return your application to the Temple office by October 21, 2011.
- Save the date, Nov. 4th @ 8pm for a FREE Chavurah cocktails and dessert event
- Babysitting services provided, if needed
- If you cannot attend the kickoff event (no worries, you can still participate!) we will send you your Chavurah information following the event.